REPLY

This Reply is filed on behalf of the South Carolina Telephone Coalition ("SCTC") to the Response of South Carolina Cable Television Association, CompSouth, tw telecom of south carolina llc, and Nuvox Communications Incorporated (collectively "CLECs") to the Joint Motion for Review filed by the Office of Regulatory Staff ("ORS") and the SCTC.

In their response, CLECs claim that the information they seek "has not been consistently protected as confidential" by the carriers of last resort ("COLRs"). See CLEC Response at p. 5. To support this allegation, CLECs attach information that was filed by certain rural local exchange carriers in January and February 2004. See Exhibit B to CLEC Response.

This Reply is being filed to make it clear that the information contained in CLECs' Exhibit B was filed by the rural COLRs before the SCTC requested and the Commission issued a protective order, Order No. 2005-139 dated March 31, 2005, specifically covering the USF data sheets at issue here.

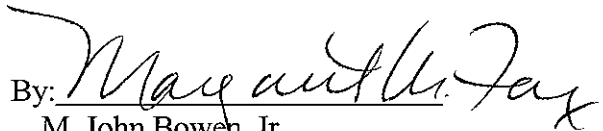

More importantly, the information contained in CLECs' Exhibit B was filed well before the rural COLRs in question faced facilities-based competition from Time Warner Cable and others in the rural telephone company service areas. Because there was little, if any, facilities-based competition in their service areas in 2004, the rural COLRs did not have the same level of concern that they have today with protecting such information from disclosure to competitors.

Time Warner Cable Information Services, Inc., obtained a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the Commission, subject to a stipulation with the SCTC, by Order No. 2004-213, dated May 24, 2004, in Docket No. 2003-362-C. That order allowed Time Warner to compete in non-rural areas, as well as in rural areas where the incumbent LEC no longer had a federal rural telephone company exemption (after July 1, 2004). Time Warner did not actually begin competing in the rural areas covered by its certificate until at least June 28, 2006 (Effective date of interconnection agreement with Hargray Telephone Company). Time Warner only recently obtained a certificate to operate in the service areas of Farmers Telephone Cooperative, Fort Mill Telephone Company, Home Telephone Company, PBT Telecom, and Rock Hill Telephone Company. See Order No. 2009-325(A) in Docket Nos. 2008-325-C through 2008-329-C, dated June 11, 2009.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated in the Joint Motion and other pleadings filed by the SCTC and ORS, we respectfully request that the Commission overrule the Hearing Officer's directive dated October 7, 2009, and confirm that the information sought by CLECs is protected from disclosure to actual and potential competitors by prior Commission Order; that releasing such information to actual and potential competitors would harm SCTC members; and that CLECs have not shown that the requested information is relevant or necessary to their case.

Respectfully submitted,

By:

M. John Bowen, Jr.
